Old Business:

Steve Rognas made up flyers for the First Annual Father's Day Festival and are available at the museum. Need to Contact Kerry DeBoer if wanting to bring items out to display that weekend.

New windows really brighten up the meeting room. Thanks to Joe Stebbins, Larry Buttel, Ron Pieper, Ed Keech and Ed Preston for installing them throughout the building, including the basement. They look great!

It was announced that names on the memorial plaque need to be updated. Mary Seefeldt-Swanson to check and see who still needs to be added and get them ordered.

April 3rd at 6:30pm will be setting up for the Pancake Supper and on April 5th the supper will start at 3:30pm and go until 7pm. Help and items for the bake sale are needed. Call any board member for more details.

New Business:

June 7th will be an Old Fashion Family Fun Day in Dakota IL. We will be having a booth to promote this year's threshing show as well as having a float in the parade. Come check it out.

Comcast has selected the Engine Club to come out with 40+ volunteers to help clean, paint, plant and general sprucing up for this year's show season. Comcast will provide t-shirts, water and lunch for those who will be helping. This event will be nationally publicized and they mayor has also been invited to participate. So keep April 26th open on the calendar.

New electric wiring has been installed in the museum. Joe Stebbins wants doors and windows caulked and have a chance to dry before Comcast comes. Ladies need help cleaning all the rooms in the museum before opening day on Memorial Day weekend.

Goody Bringers: Brittney Kurth, Sarah DeHahn, Kim McMahon, Ida DeBoer, Sue Eisenhower, Glenda Keech, Joyce Shade and Norma Bawinkel.

Motion to adjourn meeting made by Ruth Yeoman and second by Michelle DeBoer-motion carried.

Next Meeting: April 27th at 1:30pm
